Shipping prices vary significantly from state to state. We're always looking for the most economical and safe way to get you your wine. This means, however, that we'll have to let you know your shipping cost at the time we process your order. In summer months we recommend next day air. During cooler weather, ground shipping is adequate. For point of reference: one case (12 bottles) of wine via ground and next day air—to CA $48/$83, to NY $73/$164.
